The Power 4

1. President Jefferson (2-0)

The most dominant performance of the week. The only team to score triple digits making him the team to beat Controversial take, but this is my pick to win it all. It's all going to come down to coaching.

3. Team LJvanmolle (2-0)

A solid coach in all leagues and in all formats. The man doesn't even need to change his name to be feared

4. Dona de Casa (2-0)

The most hyped manager coming into the league starts off her debut strong. From polling last in the pre-power rankings can she keep it up?
